Note of Thanks.

When sickness and death comes to us, and removes from our home our loved ones and especially an only daughter who seemed to be an angel in mercy sent to cheer and comfort us all only for a little while. Then it is that friendship seems so dear. Never can I express my feelings to my friends.
For it seemed to me that from the oldest citizen down to the dear little children all wished to do something for our dear, departed Beulah.

May God in tenderness bless you all.

J. N. HOLLINGSWORTH AND FAMILY
ONE LESS.

One less at home!

The charmed circle broken; a dear face
Miss day by day from its accustomed place,
But cleansed and saved and perfected by grace,

One more in Heaven.

One less at home!

One voice of welcome hushed, and evermore

One farewell word unspoken, on the shore
Where parting comes not, one soul landed more,

One more in Heaven!

One less at home!

A sense of loss that meets us at the gate;
Within, a place unfilled and desolate;
And far away, our coming to-avoid.
One more in Heaven.

One less at home!

Chill as the earth-born mist the thought would rise
And wrap our footsteps round and dim our eyes;
But the bright sunbeam darteth from the skies—

One more in Heaven.

One more at Home!

This is not home, where, cramped in earthly mold,
Our sight of Christ is dim, our love is cold;
But there, where face to face we shall behold,

Is Home and Heaven.

One less on earth!

Its pain, its sorrow, and its toil to share;
One less the pilgrim's daily cross to bear,
One more the crown of ransomed souls
to wear,

At home in Heaven.

One more in Heaven!

Another thought to brighten cloudy days;
Another theme for thankfulness and praise;

Another link on high, our souls to raise
To Home and Heaven.

One more at Home!

That Home where separation cannot be;
That Home whence none is miss eternally;
Lord Jesus, grant us a place with Thee,
At home in Heaven.
